Dedication

Mrs. Verdy

Throughout the many years of adolescence, when we are at our most vulnerable state, when we are still struggling to reconcile ourselves to the adult world, there are a few who stand by us and help us through our moments of uncertainty. These people can be a friend, a parent, a sibling or a teacher.

Today, we are honored to recognize the great sacrifices that one teacher in particular has made for us. One who had taken up the task of educating us, and guiding us through life itself. Today, we honor this teacher who has in one way or another, played a part in the shaping of who we are and who we are yet to be.

A teacher is more than an educator. They can play all roles - the roles of a friend, counselor or mentor. A teacher can be the guiding force in our lives even after we pass through this portal of school and step into the real world that lies ahead to be conquered. I can assure you that all of us have at one point or another, sought a teacher's help; help with homework, or help with a difficult situation at hand.

And for this reasoning Ms. Verdy, we as the class of 2015 are dedicating this yearbook to you. You have never failed us in any way. You have accepted our failings with good humor. Today, we honor you for the wonderful person and mentor that you have been, that you are, and that you always will be. Today we can say that although we may be aggravating at times, perhaps even many times, we appreciate you for who you are. No matter how many game day selfies and batches of cookies we begged you to make, you have always been one to turn to for help. You have given us your love and wisdom and we could not have asked for more.

We wish you the best of luck with your retirement and thank you for the constant time and support you have given not only the students here, but to your co-workers and school as well.

Game Day w the Math Department

Special Thanks

Ms. Young Senior Class Advisor

As our class advisor, we thought it was right to dedicate a page to thank the wonderful Ms. Young. Many of us met Ms. Young our freshman year and others sophomore year and from there on we began our journey through high school together. She was there for us since day one; always helping us with fundraising, class events, prom, and our amazing senior week. She is not only a teacher, however a mentor as well. We could always go to her for advice no matter what the situation was, she is even a best friend to some of us. Your dedication and hard work allowed us have a great four years at Millis High School. Thank you so much for everything Mebs. We will miss you next year!

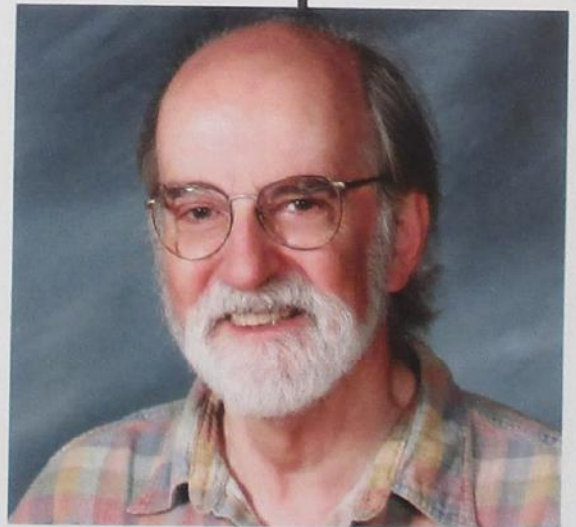

Sincerely, the Class of 2015

Retirement

Mr. Oliphant was one of the most passionate teachers that Millis has ever had. There was never a school day where he was not in the mood to teach physics and astronomy. Also, he was always willing to find time for students that needed extra help. He contributed greatly to the beautification of the school with the variety of plants he had both inside and outside of the school. The high school will miss the hallways being filled with the classical music playing from his classroom and the Friday night field trips for chinese food and concerts. You will truly be missed and the school will definitely not be the same without you. Thank you so much for everything that you did for the school Mr. O.

Mr. Oliphant

Administration

Dear Class of 2015,

Thank you for your years with us in the Millis Public Schools. You will be remembered for your youthful exuberance and your compassion for others. You have worked hard and grown in immeasurable ways.

Fifteen years ago, Mark Lewis, Professor of Clinical Psychology at the University of Texas said, in a fantastic commencement address, "The way to be happy is to like yourself and the way to like yourself is to do only things that make you proud.... The person who you're with most in life is yourself and if you don't like yourself you're always with somebody you don't like."

We are proud of you and your accomplishments. My hope is that now you will make yourselves proud, become the leaders that you have started to become, and use your talents and energy to make this world a better place. Judging by the impact you have had here in Millis, you've gotten off to a good start!

Best of luck,

Nancy Gustafson,

To the Class of 2015,

Congratulations on your graduation from Millis High School. I hope that what you have learned and accomplished here will follow you wherever your journey takes you. You are entering a world that is full of change. Many of you will find yourselves in jobs and careers that we can only imagine right now. It is my hope that with all of the content you've learned in your classes you've also learned key skills such as collaborating with others, being part of a team, seeing multiple perspectives, and being open to new opinions and ideas. These characteristics are going to be essential in the world that lies ahead of you.

I hope the skills and knowledge you gained in high school also help you to become a leader in this changing world. I hope you all leave with the confidence to set lofty goals for yourselves despite the risk of failure. Always doing the comfortable thing means you are not growing. Maintaining the status quo should not be a priority. Leaders are those who have the vision to see change and the determination to carry it out.

Please know that wherever your journey takes you, you will always be part of Millis High School's Class of 2015. You should be very proud of that. I am very proud of you.

You did it!

Congratulations my wonderful granddaughter!
We are all so proud of you and what you have achieved.
- Love you, Grandma Alice

You are an amazing young woman. We are so proud of you.
The best of luck in college and beyond!
- Love, Grandma Pimmie, Uncle Floyd, Aunt Carmen & Matthew

To "FNL" - You've been dazzling since the day you were born.
Dazzle on, beautiful girl! The world (and I) wait with baited breath.
(And don't forget - we have a museum to build!).
- Congratulations and much love, "FAE"

Focused, hard-working, fun, loves to laugh, has a great personality - oh yes, and is a brilliant scholar. There is no one else that we would rather have an adventure with the Martin Family!
- We love you, Uncle Lou, Aunt Cheryl, Anthony & Andrew

We thank God for you in our lives and are so proud of the woman you are becoming. May you be blessed with health and prosperity as your journey in life continues.
- Love and congratulations, Mom & Dad

Kaitlyn

The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Michael and Marissa

Jake,

There are no words that truly convey how incredibly proud your entire family is of you! Congratulations on all you have brilliantly accomplished. We are thrilled to watch your continued success as you sail away to begin your new journey in college. Enjoy every moment and always remember to have fun! WE LOVE YOU!!
XOXOXOXOXOXOX

Ben Francis Harrington

To our Ben,
You are our "Piano Man". You are a caring son, and a thoughtful and fun brother. You bring joy and happiness to your grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. We have all enjoyed watching you grow into a wonderful young man.

You surprised us when you decided to play percussion in 8th grade, and then when you taught yourself to play guitar. When you went on to play piano, bass, and harmonica, we were overjoyed! You have shown determination in expanding on your talents.

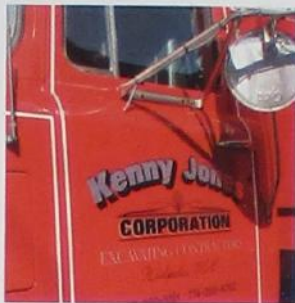

Your intelligence and strength will be your anchor on your path to success. Remember to enjoy the journey as well as the destination.

Love,
Mom and Dad

"The secret to happiness is to find out what your passion is and doing just that. Do what you love and love what you do. Keep on rocking in the free world!"
